LEADERSHIP U

Defending the Faith Anywhere in the World in Five Minutes or Less!

Leadership U. is the first "virtual campus" on the Internet. Buildings, departments, disciplines, presiding faculty ... even at a glance, Leadership U. has all the earmarks of a dynamic university. But there is one significant difference; LU offers the best in science and scholarship from the perspective of men and women whose lives reflect a personal commitment to the Christian faith. Leadership U. demonstrates that Christianity is more than a religion; it is a worldview that affects every field, discipline, vocation, and person. With the mission of "defending and explaining the faith anywhere in the world in less than five minutes," LU is committed to...

- | Providing complete information, not just links to other sites or references to books and publications,
- | Presenting the best research and information from a Christian perspective by experts in various fields and disciplines,
- | Delivering resources anywhere in the world by e-mail or "hard-copy" format in less than five minutes,
- | Providing the best information on key social issues,
- | Embodying a value-added philosophy by providing as many resources as possible FREE to those who visit the site, and
- | Empowering Christians to minister effectively inside and outside the university.

Every day, Leadership U. is building toward its goal of housing 100,000 articles by Christian professors and 10,000 annotated bibliographies. From the science of origins to music and even culturally relevant subjects like homosexuality, LU is dedicated to becoming the best, most complete one-stop center for information from a Christian perspective. Leadership U.'s web site is
